District 25
Toastmasters

Thank you for attending!

Fellow D25 Members,

Thank you for showing up and showing out this past weekend! There were soooo many of you that expressed elation of your experience at the overall conference!

We started out Friday night with encouragement to "get plugged in" by Dr. Shawneequa Harris. Reach out to others-- you never know how it can help in the future. We were then amazed by the whirling moves of Ever Dance Studios' Loui and Noella with Latin and Country Partner Dance exhibitions.

We rounded out the night with a Costume contest and Line Dancing! Hats off to Super Book Woman, and the two Power Princesses! We ended with a circle serenade of Neil Diamond's "Sweet Caroline!" What a great way to end the night!

Saturday, we received such inspiration to live life on purpose, embracing diversity, the Be Attitudes of Communication-- Be Brief, concise and clear when communicating, and the important, imperative components of Leadership! We had a rousing keynote at lunch -- John Carter! How are life and a$5 bill the same? Do you remember why? Spend wisely.

We learned more about being effective evaluators--be authentic, give constructive and specific feedback, with examples. We also appreciated the insight and pointers for developing topics for speeches.

We wrapped up with a beautiful DTM Ceremony, highlighting the ultimate accomplishments in Toastmasters!

Please take a moment to fill out the survey and let our Spring 2017 Conference committee know what they can do to make your experience even better!!!

Again, thank you for your participation! Go make "ripples!"
